

An Inclusion Forum can be from 45 to 60 minutes and is delivered either in person or virtually using Zoom. For workplaces, there is also a flexible online version Inclusion in Practice which is delivered as six half-hour sessions.

An Inclusion Forum can cover one or two themes, for example gender, sexuality, disability, culture or mental health.

For workplaces in Hobart, the Inclusion Forum is a perfect ‘lunchbox’ session. Staff can explore selected diversity themes and ways of being more inclusive in a relaxed setting.

INCLUSION FORUM

You can ask that!

The Inclusion Forum is offered as an alternative to the full Hobart Human Library workshop. It is ideal as a taster or refresher, for schools or workplaces, or for larger audiences, such as at conferences.

Like the Hobart Human Library an Inclusion Forum uses the art of storytelling to break down barriers and build empathy. It provides an opportunity for audiences to hear the personal experience of prejudice from two human ‘books’ and ask questions in a Q & A that we call, “You can ask that!”

All ‘books’ are Tasmanians who have experienced stereotyping, prejudice or discrimination - perhaps because of their culture, religion, gender, sexual orientation, appearance or wellness. In sharing their personal experiences they hope to educate others about the impact and start conversations about how we can all contribute to positive change.

It was just so good to be able to be in a room feeling safe and having no judgement.

It was great to have a Q and A session after Chloe and Andy and for them to be so open answering our questions.

Thanks for coming. It was an amazing experience.

The listening and being non-judgemental was best.
